

Roland Strasser

Roland Strasser, a German national who was born in 1975, trained as an industrial mechanic at Hoechst AG from 1991 to 1994. He worked here until 2001 where he was also the youth and trainee representative in the works council.

He trained to become a trade union secretary in several districts, including Hanau, Saarbrücken and Munich, and in the Rhineland-Palatinate/Saarland state district from 2001 to 2003. Roland Strasser then worked at the Rhineland-Palatinate/Saarland branch of IG BCE (Mining, Chemical and Energy Industries Union) in this role. In 2010, he took over as Deputy District Manager of IG BCE in the Ludwigshafen district where he went on to become the District Manager in 2011. He has been the Regional Manager of the Rhineland-Palatinate/Saarland branch of IG BCE since 2017.

Moreover, he is also a member of the supervisory boards at AbbVie Komplementär GmbH, BASF SE and V & B Fliesen GmbH. Furthermore, he is a member of the Transformation Council and Economic Council of the Rhineland-Palatinate state government.

Roland Strasser has been a member of the Villeroy & Boch AG Supervisory Board since 2021.